GREG G. ALLEN
CLERK OF SUPERIOR, STATE & JUVENILE COURT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 22- 01

WHEREAS, there has been sharp increase in COVID-19 cases in the Forsyth County community and as such the Court deems it appropriate and necessary for the safety of persons required to attend court and the employees of the Forsyth County State Court and related agencies in the criminal justice system, the State Court of Forsyth County hereby amends its court calendars as follows:

1. The Traffic Arraignment Calendar scheduled for Thursday, January 6, 2022, is canceled. Cases will be re-noticed by the Criminal Case Coordinators. Defendants wishing to pay fines on “payable” traffic citations may do so in person at the Clerk’s Office during the Clerk’s regular business hours or online through the Clerk’s Office website at www.forsythclerk.com.
2. To the extent possible and unless otherwise required by law, all criminal motion hearings, plea and other non-jury matters will conducted virtually through January 14, 2022.

All parties are directed to the web page of the State Court at forsythcourts.com and the Clerk of Superior Court at www.forsythclerk.com for further information and the updated court calendars.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of January, 2022.

T. Russell McClelland III, Chief Judge
Forsyth County State Court
Bell-Forsyth Judicial Circuit
